

UCLA Women's School

Leadership Academy (WSLA)

January 2021 - July 2021

UCLA WSLA is a pioneering leadership program for women. It provides leaders with the tools and knowledge they need to be more impactful educational leaders. The 6-month program goes beyond the K – 12 leadership basics to help women realize their own voices and to shape their own stories.

The program is the anchor of an academy that offers program graduates continuing options for networking and learning. Instructors are expert leaders in education. Keynote speakers are outstanding leaders in a variety of fields. The program embraces social justice and is designed for working professionals.

360 degree leadership

Communicating for impact

Navigating public and private lives

These through lines are informed by five themes

- Promoting equity, access and inclusion
- Leading as a woman in times of calm and crisis
- Increasing capacity to manage and lead
- Making decisions considering multiple cultural and political perspectives
- Women supporting women in professional growth

In WSLA, women learn online from one another and from leaders during:

Three 2-Day 4 hour Intensives Eight Monday Evening Sessions Four Saturday Mornings

January 15-16, April 9-10,
and June 25-26

February 8, 22; March 1, 15;
April 5, May 3, 17; June 7

February 27, March 20,
May 22, July 10

For more information or a Zoom information session contact Dr. Linda Rose at lrose@ucla.edu.
For application materials, please visit www.gseis.ucla.edu/elp-wsla.

Deadline to apply is December 5, 2020.